2007Partner's Instructions for North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 58)*Purpose of schedule

North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 58) is provided to you by the partnership to show your share of the income, gains, losses, deductions, and other items from the partnership that you need to complete your North Dakota income tax return. These instructions will assist you in transferring the amounts from the schedule to your North Dakota income tax return.

Partnership or corporation partner. If you are a corporation, partnership, or a limited liability company treated like a corporation or partnership, you have received North Dakota Schedule K-1 only to show your share of the partnership's North Dakota statutory adjustments or tax credits that may affect the preparation of your North Dakota income tax return. See the instructions to Part 3.

Resident individual, estate, or trust partner. If you are a North Dakota resident individual, estate, or trust, you must report to North Dakota your entire share of the partnership's income, gains, losses, and deductions that are included in your federal taxable income. You have received North Dakota Schedule K-1 only to show your share of the partnership's North Dakota statutory adjustments or tax credits that may affect the preparation of your North Dakota income tax return. See the instructions to Part 3.

Nonresident individual, estate, or trust partner. If you are a nonresident individual, estate, or trust, you must report to North Dakota your share of the partnership's income, gains, losses, and deductions that are apportioned and allocated to North Dakota based on the partnership's activity in North Dakota. These items are shown in Part 4 of North Dakota Schedule K-1. Unless you are a nonresident individual who elected to include your share of these items in a composite return filed on your behalf by the partnership, you must file a North Dakota income tax return to report and pay the required income tax on them.

Composite return election. If you are a nonresident individual who elected to include your share of the partnership's North Dakota income, gains, losses, and deductions in a composite return filed by the partnership, you are not required to file a North Dakota individual income tax return. If this applies to you, you received North Dakota Schedule K-1 to show your share of these items and the composite income tax paid on them. If you later choose to file your own North Dakota individual income tax return, follow the instructions below to transfer the amounts from North Dakota Schedule K-1 to your return.

Amended Schedule K-1 (Form 58). If you received an amended North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 58) from the partnership, and you previously filed a North Dakota income tax return, you must file an amended North Dakota income tax return to report the changes in income, gains, losses, and deductions. You also must attach a copy of the amended North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 58) to your amended North Dakota income tax return.
